Introduction

This story map focuses on why you should pack your bags right now and move to the best town in the world, Falmouth! Falmouth is a great place to settle down, especially if you like a peaceful and relaxing atmosphere. With a population of 32,000 and many beaches to visit life will never fail to deliver good times.

With the famous Falmouth road race happening annually, you may feel obliged to start working out in order to participate. There are many opportunities like this to grow and enjoy, such as going to the beach and harvesting oysters in the marshes!

Other than the ocean that is neighboring Falmouth, there are many ponds and rivers for you to enjoy. Many have oyster oportunities, such as Oyster pond, but many others have recreational uses as well!

While living in Falmouth would be ideal, its also great to acknowledge what support it would have as a family and a growing household.

Primarily, it has many schools near the center of town if one wants to grow a family.

There is a consistent distribution of libraries across the town as well!

And As security is important the police department is in the center of the town if anything happens.

Conclusion

As we can see, Falmouth is a great place to live from its many recreational opportunities to the social communities that gather in the cape annually. Who wouldn't want to live in the cape. I'm sure you do after viewing this story map.
